To Whom It May Concern

Together with my wife, we have been dealing with Shirley for over a year now and it's been one of the most rewarding professional collaborations we've ever had.

Having to leave our newly renovated house for an overseas post we were dreading ending up with tenants that would neglect the place, cause complaints from the neighbours or be unreliable with payments. We looked for someone to alleviate our concerns. We interviewed seven agents and were most impressed by Shirley; she was clearly head and shoulders above the rest.

And after more than a year of her looking after our house I can honestly say that Shirley's been more than professional; not only has she secured reliable tenants but also she looks after our house as if it was her own.

I wouldn't hesitate to recommend her services to anyone and can only hope she'll remain as our agent for years.
